I'm Not Gonna Cry For You

The Mavericks

I am not gonna cry for you
Not gonna cry for you
Anymore
You, can tell me that you still care
Darlin' I won't be there
At your door
If you think that I still need you
An' may you never think you're right
So don't expect to see me waiting
Morning, noon and lonely nights
I have tried to understand you
But you have always proved me wrong

You have been the great pretender
And I have been a fool too long
I am not gonna cry for you
Not gonna cry for you
Anymore
You, can tell me that you still care
Darlin' I won't be there
At your door
Not gonna cry for you
Not gonna cry for you
Anymore
