

Man In The Middle

Bee Gees

You've got a plan that could never go wrong
You took advantage and the damage done
It all comes back to me baby
It all comes back to me I played the fool and I went off the track
And when I think of all it cost when the die was cast
You know I had to be crazy
You know I had to be I've been telling lies
And you forgive me but my heart still cries
And you can understand I'm just the man in the middle of a complicated plan
No one to show me the signs
I'm just a creature of habit in a complicated world
Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide I know I let you down in so many ways
I know that sorry doesn't tell you
What you need me to say
But, I would die for you baby
Yes, I would die for you I've been in disguise
And you forgive me and our love will rise
And you can understand I'm just the man in the middle of a complicated plan
No one to show me the light
I guess I'm weary from battle but I've just begun to fight
Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide I'm just the man in the middle of a complicated plan
No one to show me the signs
I'm just a creature of habit in a complicated world
Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide I'm just the man in the middle of a complicated plan
No one to show me the light
I guess I'm weary from battle but I've just begun to fight
Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide I'm just the man in the middle, the only man
The fool of a man in the middle
Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide I'm just the man, the only man, that stupid man
Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide
