

Should've Listened

Nickelback

There's clothes all over the floor
I don't remember them being here before
Smell of perfume isn't here
Why's lipstick on the mirror?
And still I don't understand No pictures left in the hall
There's three new holes in my wall
Where the hell's my credit cards?
Why's my wallet in the yard?
And still I don't understand Well now I guess I should've listened
When you said you'd had enough
A little trick I picked up from my father
In one ear and out the other
Why's love gotta be so tough? Should see the look on my face
My shit's all over the place
Why's this happening to me?
Why'd you take both sets of keys?
And still I don't understand Well now I guess I should've listened
When you said you'd had enough
A little trick I picked up from my father
In one ear and out the other
Why's love gotta be so tough?
And now I guess I should've listened There's clothes all over my floor
I don't remember them being there before
There are no candles in here
Lipstick's still on my mirror
And still I don't understand Now I guess I should've listened
When you said you'd had enough
A little trick I picked up from my father
In one ear and out the other
Why must love be so tough? Well now I guess I should've listened
When you said you'd had enough
A little trick I picked up from my father
In one ear and out the other
Why's love gotta be so tough?

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>