Should've Listened

Nickelback

There's clothes all over the floor
I don't remember them being here before
Smell of perfume isn't here

Why's lipstick on the mirror?

And still I don't understandNo pictures left in the hall

There's three new holes in my wall

Where the hell's my credit cards?

Why's my wallet in the yard?

And still I don't understandWell now I guess I should've listened

When you said you'd had enough

A little trick I picked up from my father

In one ear and out the other

Why's love gotta be so tough? Should see the look on my face

My shit's all over the place

Why's this happening to me?

Why'd you take both sets of keys?

And still I don't understandWell now I guess I should've listened

When you said you'd had enough

A little trick I picked up from my father

In one ear and out the other

Why's love gotta be so tough?

And now I guess I should've listenedThere's clothes all over my floor

I don't remember them being there before

There are no candles in here

Lipstick's still on my mirror

And still I don't understandNow I guess I should've listened

When you said you'd had enough

A little trick I picked up from my father

In one ear and out the other

Why must love be so tough? Well now I guess I should've listened

When you said you'd had enough

A little trick I picked up from my father

In one ear and out the other

Why's love gotta be so tough?

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/