Rise Up

U2

In a stairway on the stone walk
In a doorstep, golden light
In a cold wind blowing
In the danger, out of the stormI remain in you
I will recall this storm
This storm recalls youRise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise upIn the lands you have a garden
In the garden its going dark
In the cold a wind blowing
In the cold wind blowingI am in this doorway
Feel her in this doorway
Golden hills, golden memories
I follow the ocean wherever it goesIn the doorway I dont know where to start
Emotion in the cold
In the day, darkest night
In the darkest night I knowI stumble in these shoes
In the dark nightRise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise upRise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise up
Rise up, rise up, rise up, rise upGo in the lonely, lone
Loneliness a path to go
Only if you know
Our love helps me knowYour love will help me
Discover you beneath the thing
Only if you know
Only rise up, rise up
