Bullet

Mat Kearney

Yesterday, I was sitting, recalling, reminiscing
Trying to remember whenever there was nobody listening
Before the hugging and the kissing, the booing and the hissing
All I had was just a vision, all I had was my ambition
Your love without condition kept me swinging when I'm missing
My eyes upon the prize kept me striving for the missionWhen I was down for the count, falling out of commission
I can hear your voice now screaming out "Son, listen
Get on up, don't give up, though you struck opposition
Time to buck all that stuff, find out what's your condition"
Like a pull in my soul, like keys in my ignition
Call You all my commission, my love and my vision andIt doesn't matter if they call me wrong
Doesn't matter if they steal my song
Doesn't matter if we're all alone
It doesn't matter at all'Cause I would take a bullet for You
I would take a bullet for You
I would cross any line, I'd swim across the sea
I would take a bullet for You
I would take a bullet for You
I would lose it all, I'd take my fall
To show you it's for realRemember, when we used to flow together back in the park
You would sling guitar licks under the stars in the dark
You'd say let's grow together as this world falls apart
I was holding on to hope but hardly holding a spark
All the rhymes that I wrote You'd call dope from the start
I'd be like a pure note, like a quote on the markYou'd go to every show and promote from the start
From the beginning we've been building much more than this art
Remember bearing scars in your car to impart your heart
You cared enough to call my bluff through the junk from the start
That's why You're holding onto half of my heart, You've been
There through the times, through the nights that were dark andIt doesn't matter if they call me wrong
Doesn't matter if they steal my song
Doesn't matter if we're all alone
It doesn't matter at all'Cause I would take a bullet for You
I would take a bullet for You
I would cross any line, I'd swim across the sea
I would take a bullet for You
I would take a bullet for You
I would lose it all, I'd take my fall

To show you it's for realIt's for real now
It's for real
It's for real now
It's for realIt doesn't matter if they call me wrong
Doesn't matter if they steal my song
Doesn't matter if we're all alone
It doesn't matter at allIt doesn't matter if they call me wrong
Doesn't matter if they steal my song
Doesn't matter if we're all alone
It doesn't matter at all'Cause I would take a bullet for You
I would take a bullet for You
I would cross any line, I'd swim across the sea
I would take a bullet for You
I would take a bullet for You
I would lose it all, I'd take my fall
To show you it's for realAnd it's for real now
And it's for real
And it's for real now
And it's for realAnd it's for real now
And it's for real
And it's for real now
And it's for real
