False Hope

Jeff Pearce

You're expecting one well here it comes
It's all been said it's all been done
this world will never change
So I hope it burns downYou're expecting one well here it comes
It's all been said it's all been done
Well fuck the government, fuck the world
I hope they all burn down
I despise the government
And nothing's getting solved
You think you're so fucking right
Well think once for yourselfTry all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeTry all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeTry all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeYou can can try all you want
But nothings getting solvedTry all you want
Nothings getting solved
False hopeI have not changed my views
But every band reports the same news
So let them tell you punks not dead
Maybe they can get ahead
Is that the subject you wanna hear
Nothing's changed but the years
Don't wanna repeat someone else's lines
That's such a waste of timeTry all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeTry all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeTry all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeYou can can try all you want
But nothings getting solvedTry all you want
Nothings getting solved
False hopeYou can try all you want to
But nothing's getting solved
You can try all you want to
But nothing's getting solved

You can try all you want to
But nothing's getting solvedYou can try all you want to
You can try all you want!!!!!!!!!!Try all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeTry all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeTry all you want
Nothing's getting solved
False hopeYou can can try all you want
But nothings getting solvedTry all you want
Nothings getting solved
False hope
