

Gazebo Tree

Kristin Hersh

That sky is a shine with sheen
Those eyes are a green machine
Spare me your whining
In my rainy gazebo tree Deep in my silver pit
The walls are all thick with it
My but you slay me
In my rainy gazebo tree Bless my baby eyes
Don't you know Jesus died?
I'm better off inside
Strip and you lose your hide What's in that thermos man?
Your female's a garbage can
So you haven't filled her up
Okay try to fill my cup It's moonshine from cactus
Well, I guess it can't wreck us Mmm, bless my baby eyes
Don't you know Jesus died?
I'm better off inside
Strip and you lose your hide Mmm, bless my baby eyes
Don't you know Jesus died?
Spare me your moon shining
In my rainy gazebo tree
In my rainy gazebo tree
In my rainy gazebo tree
