As a Boy

Channel Zero

Fate chose me as a conscript
Hang the car keys on the wall
Pack my bags, change my home town
For the desert's night coldAs a boy, as a man
As a boy and as a man, yeahNothing to lose here, except maybe your life
Only the good ones, they will protect you
The enemy's trophy that's what we are
Gotta be strong, gotta kick some ass or kill the time by smoking grassStop, get ready, focus on the first one
Shoot 'em down in rows
Stop, get ready, focus on the next one
Shoot 'em down in rowsThat's better man, you'll become a man
You'll become a man of honor and pride
And that's better man, you'll become a man
You'll become a man of honor and prideStop, get ready, focus on the first one
Shoot 'em down in rows
Stop, get ready, focus on the next one
Shoot 'em down in rowsAs a boy, as a man
As a boy, man, yeahMama cries, daddy's pride
Girlfriend's pregnant time to realize
Defend your country, join the army, fight for freedom
How the fuck do you become a man here?As a boy, as a man
As a boy, as a man
As a boy, man, boy, man
Boy, man, boy, man
Boy, man, yeah
