Mexican Moon

Concrete Blonde

Oh, amigo Here we do things slow Money, art, a broken heart Where did you want to go?Senor, por favor To the hotel Zona Rosa What did I come here for?Oh senor, I run But the damage has been done Miles have gone away And my amore, he never comeI look up at the sky I am tired and dry Uno tecate and limeThinking of you Underneath the Mexican moonlight Thinking of you Underneath the Mexican moonSenor, you are wise I can see a million years A million tears behind your eyesTake me home Take me to the Zona Rosa Mariachis and tequila I will dance the night aloneJust some time Just a little kiss of mine Take me where I can forget Senor, you are so very kindI look up at the sky I am tired and dry Dos tecate and limeThinking of you Underneath the Mexican moonlight Thinking of you Underneath the Mexican moonThinking of you Underneath the Mexican moonlight Thinking of you Underneath the Mexican moonI look up at the sky I will try not to cry Tres tecate and limeThinking of you Underneath the Mexican moonlight Thinking of you

Thinking of you
Underneath the Mexican moonThinking of you
Underneath the Mexican moonlight

Underneath the Mexican moonThinking of you Underneath the Mexican moonlight

Thinking of you Underneath the Mexican moon
