Not A Dry Eye In The House

Meat Loaf

Not a dry eye in the house
After love's curtain comes down
Listen and you'll hear the sound
Hear the sound of a heart breaking
I can still see you standing there
Midnight wind blowing through your hair
Remember, kisses sweet in the salty air
When love was forever
Turn the page and we fade to blue
The scene has changed now I'm without you
Well you just walked away when the act was through
And the dream was over
It was almost like a movie
(Aah)
The way you said, "Goodbye"
(Aah)
You must have spend a lot of time
(Aah)
Rehearsing each and every line
Now there's not a dry eye in the house
After loves curtain comes down
Listen and you'll hear the sound
Hear the sound of a heart breaking, breaking
Not a smile left on my face
The ending's just too sad to take
And there's not a dry eye
(Aah)
Not a dry eye in the house
(Aah)
The greatest story was you and me
We had it all we had everything, but now the Story's done it's just history
(Ooo)
The last act is over
You every line had the sweetest sound
(Ooo)
(Oo, ooo)
Your every touch turned my world around
But then the, the lights came up and my world crashed down

(Aah)
End of show, it's over
It was almost like a movie

(Aah)
Those nights we touched the stars
(Aah)
Time stood still for you and I
(Aah)
Now it's sad enough to make you cry
And there's not a dry eye in the house
After love's curtain comes down
Listen and you'll hear the sound
Hear the sound of a heart breaking, breaking
The ending's just too sad to take
And there's not a dry eye
(Aah)
Not a dry eye in the house
(Aah)
Act one, the story's just begun
Act two, I fell in love with you
Act three, knew it was meant to be (Aah, aah)
Act four, you don't love me no more
(Aah)
Not a dry eye in the house
After love's curtain comes down
Listen and you'll hear the sound
Hear the sound of a heart breaking
(Breaking)
Breaking
(Breaking)
The ending's just too sad to take
And there's not a dry eye
(Aah)
Not a dry eye
Not a dry eye in the house
After love's curtain comes down
Listen and you'll hear the sound
Hear the sound of a heart breaking, breaking
Not a dry eye in the house
Not a dry eye in the house
Not a dry eye in the house

Ooo
