

Lean Into My Love

Young Galaxy

You can make me the pulse
Deep under your wing
You can sharpen my blade
It'd be a dangerous thing
When a sudden impulse
Is liberating
I'm a red-blooded girl
Getting captivated
And all the silence
Is concentrated
Hold my hand
I'm titillated
You can come to my altar
If you want confession
Make it deepen your focus
And self-possession
You can lean
Into my love
I think we really, really want the same thing
You can lean
Into my love
I think we really, really want the same thing
You can make me your lover
If you want the challenge
You can make me your brother
If you need some balance
To the sudden impulse
Makes your cup run over
Makes you thicken your blood
Makes you run for cover
What am I gonna do with words you say
When they get tripped up in a typical way
Gotta move close for your love to stare
Hold on tight 'cause the moment's clear
What am I gonna do with the words you say
When they get tripped up in a typical way
Gotta move close for your love to stare
Hold on tight 'cause the moment's clear; Lean
Into my love
I think we really, really want the same thing
You can lean

Into my love
I think we really, really want the same thing
You can lean
Into my love
I think we really, really want the same thing
You can lean
Into my love
I think we really, really want the same thing
