

Schoolboy

Scared Of Chaka

Doll crush this schoolboy
With eyes that light up my darkend soul

Well you know you own the world
Yeah you dirty little girl
With that sparkle in your eyes
That's why everyone else cries

Gone all my nightmares
Dreamt by an ordinary one

Well you know you own the world
Yeah you dirty little girl
With that sparkle in your eyes
That's why everyone else cries

Well my triumphs have never equaled my defeats
I've ended up drunk down some dark empty street
When the fire that's around finally reaches its peak
And the pain in my heart beats the pain in my head
And all of those girls that wish they were dead

Gone whisper slowly
We've got just one remaining year

Well you know you own the world
Yeah you dirty little girl
With that sparkle in your eyes
That's why everyone else cries
