

Here Lately

Sunny Sweeney

A thousand miles of railroad track made me think the whole thing through Made up my mind I ain't turnin' back I'd rather live in Texas with the bluesCause here lately time has shown me all the things that mattered from the start Here lately I've been gatherin' all the broken pieces of a heart here latelyI spend my time here just talking to the wall, proving to myself that it's ok I've got things here I could do but I think I'll save them for a rainy dayCause here lately time has shown me
all the things that mattered from the start
Here lately I've been gatherin' all the broken pieces of a heart
here latelyCause here lately time has shown me
all the things that mattered from the start
Here lately I've been gatherin' all the broken pieces of a heart
Here latelyHere lately
Here lately
