

Liar, Liar

LaTocha Scott

 Hmm, hmm, ooh
 Never gonna put you out
 Never gonna let you down
 Never gonna break your heart
 Never gonna mess around
 Never gonna tell you lies
 Never gonna make you cry
 All those things you said
Now would you mind telling me why?
 I'm out here all alone
 And I'm feeling let down
 My heart's broken up in two
 I'm wondering what was true
 Hearing all the shit you said
 Now somebody else is in your bed
And now that I've got your attention[1] - Listen to the sound of me breaking down, down, down
 Can't you hear me losing my mind?
 Everything that's everything is nothing
 And I can't tell your truth from all your lies
 This is the sound of me breaking down, down, down
 Over and over again in my head
You're a liar, a liar, a liar yes So why don't you just hush up all that noise? (noise)
 That's all it ever was (was)
 How you gonna try and confess?
 What you should've said
 Just a simple friend
 I didn't mean to fall in love
 Well I fell for the spell that you cast
 And in sense that wasn't enough
 But wait a minute baby
I got to get this off my chest somehow
 No more running out of the ways
 To say just what I mean
Can you tell by the look on my face?
 That I just wanna scream[Repeat 1]
