

Ben Hur (The Legend Of Chin)

Switchfoot

Everything I know tell me she's everything
That I could hope for Everything I know tell me I can't let her walk away I took my time to find the words
I hoped she'd feel the same 'Cause I want someone to share my smile
To share the pain, to be there when the sea turns gray
To share the joy for better or worse
And I thought that it might have been her
Wonder if she knows
The way I saw her soul light up my life
Wonder if she knows
Of the pain I feel tonight I took my time to find the words
I hoped she'd feel the same 'Cause I want someone to share my smile
To share the pain, to be there when the sea turns gray
To share the joy for better or worse
And I thought that it might have been her
And I thought that it might have been her
And I thought that it might have been her
And I thought that it might have been her
And I thought that it might have been her
I thought that it might have been
I thought that it might have been her
