Regret

Day Of Fire

Don't you ever forget, don't you ever believe in the lie
You could never redeem any time, looking back in regret
Don't you ever forget
Did you see it coming? Was it more than you could bet?
Did you fall for something? Were you taking your next step?
Was it all for nothing? Just to find yourself in debt
To the thought of something that you could have never kept
You could have never kept
Don't you ever forget, don't you ever believe in the lie
You could never redeem any time, looking back in regret
Don't you ever forget, don't you ever believe in the lie
You could never redeem any time, looking back in regret
Don't you ever forget
Could you keep it coming? Did you stop and catch your breath?
Would you walk on water or just sink inside your head?
Could you stand for something even if you stand against?
Would you hold on to it if it's broken in your hands?
Broken in your hands
Don't you ever forget, don't you ever believe in the lie
You could never redeem any time, looking back in regret
Don't you ever forget, don't you ever believe in the lie
You could never redeem any time, looking back in regret
Don't you ever forget
Sometimes you just don't know, just how to let it go
Sometimes you just don't know
Don't you ever forget, don't you ever believe in the lie
You could never redeem any time, looking back in regret
Don't you ever forget, don't you ever believe in the lie
You could never redeem any time, looking back in regret
Don't you ever forget, don't you ever believe in the lie
You could never redeem any time, looking back in regret
Don't you ever forget, don't you ever forget
Don't you ever forget
