Tutankhamen

Nightwish

As the sun sets beyond the pyramids
To greet me with its rays
I place my hand on my forehead
To see your chariots' flamesWatch me kneel before you
Hear the cats meowing in the temple
They yearn the milk you cascaded
As I yearn that promised treasureTreasure of Tutankhamen
I am the one it is Take me with you
through the stargate
To the valley of the kingsSacrifice me
Tutankhamen
And let me be your queen
Take me
Tonight and always
We'll breed to fill all earth
