Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Fall in love with pan
For he's the perfect man
Fall in love with pan
For he's the perfect man
All my sisters around the land
Take him in your traveling van
And fall in love with pan
For he's the perfect lover
Yeah he's the perfect lover
Sister you need not worry no more
About your soul and about your war
Take your freedom and walk out the door
And don't come back
And don't come back til he's ready
Til he's ready
To let you be freeFall in love with pan
For he's the perfect man
Fall in love with pan
For he's the perfect man
All my sisters around the land
Take him in your traveling van
And fall in love with pan
For he's the perfect lover
Yeah he's the perfect lover
Sister you need not worry no more
About your soul and about your war
Take your freedom and walk out the door
And don't come back
And don't come back til he's ready
Til he's ready
To let you be freeFree with your love
And free with your trust

And free with your passion
And free with your lust
Free with your anger
Free with your guilt
Freedom without so your flower won't wilt
We are strong now
And it won't be long now
Until we're free
Free, free
