

Pretty as a Picture

Elizabeth Futral, Robert Tweten, Rudolph Palmer &

You're as pretty as a picture
In your brand new evening gown
Within your eyes I see that starlight of old
 With that smile a little bold
 What a lovely lovely picture
You're my treasured work of art
And I'll always keep your picture
Locked in a room in my heart
You're as pretty as a picture
 In your brand new evening gown
 Within your eyes I see that starlight of old
 With that smile a little bold
 What a lovely lovely picture
You're my treasured work of art
And I'll always keep your picture
Locked in a room in my heart
