

Last Night

Justin Timberlake

I just want to enjoy my life
And show this world how to care
And nothin' brings more joy to my life
Than knowin' my girl will be there Are you happy girl
Knowin' that you went
And broke my heart in a piece or two?
Knowin' that I would have
Walked across the ocean for you?
Sayin' you are young and confused
But that's a lame excuse
That's why the only one to blame is you for Last night, I can't believe what I was hearin'
Tellin' me to have a nice life
So tonight, I don't think I'll spare your feelings
(You're on your own)
Imma do for me what's right In your eyes I see a second chance
Maybe I should take another glance
But for now I'll wash my hands
'Cause I love ya baby, love ya baby Pharell say, "Don't do it the same"
But I say "I ain't playin' my games"
But for you my soul still remains
'Cause I love ya baby, love ya baby Are you happy girl
Knowin' that you went
And broke my heart in a piece or two?
Knowin' that I would have
Walked across the ocean for you?
Sayin' you are young and confused
But that's a lame excuse
That's why the only one to blame is you for Last night, I can't believe what I was hearin'
Tellin' me to have a nice life
So tonight, I don't think I'll spare your feelings
(You're on your own)
Imma do for me what's right I hope you're thinkin'
(Remember girl when I was your man)
I hope it sinks in
(If you don't understand, then you don't understand)
Because I'm dreamin'
Of the way I feel about you Last night, I can't believe what I was hearin'
Tellin' me to have a nice life
So tonight, I don't think I'll spare your feelings

(You're on your own)
Imma do for me what's right Last night
(Just the last night)
I can't believe what I was hearin'
(I just can't believe it baby)
Tellin' me to have a nice life
So tonight, I don't think I'll spare your feelings
(You're on your own)
Imma do for me what's right
(I got somethin' to tell you girl) I hope you're thinkin'
(Remember girl when I was your man)
I hope it sinks in
(If you don't understand, then you don't understand)
Because I'm dreamin'
Of the way I feel about you
(Let me tell you one more time) I hope you're thinkin'
(Remember girl when I was your man, my baby)
I hope it sinks in
(If you don't understand, then you don't understand)
Because I'm dreamin' of the way I feel about you Oh baby, see I ain't gonna be the one
Ain't gonna play these games with you
But I still love you Remember girl when I was your man?
Ain't nothin' gonna take that away
No no no no no no See I remember in December
We were walkin' holdin' hands
And I was your man
Can't we just get back to that, baby?
