Change

Wide Mouth Mason

Change
ChangeDid you bring anything that you made yourself?
Did it all come from somebody else?
Are you there, anywhere, on the ground, in a chair
Asking flesh and blood for helpChange, but be yourself now
Change, but be yourself nowDo you go what you know and feel just fine?
Do you try, on the fly, to be fresh?
A bed of nails, a night in jail, that's the hard way to learn
Doing what you're told makes no senseChange, ah, yeah, but be yourself now
Change, ah, yeah, but be yourself now
Change, ah, yeah, but be yourself now
Change, ah, yeah, but be your real self, real self nowChange, yeah, be yourself now
Change, but be yourself now
Change, but be yourself now
Change, but be yourself nowTomorrow dive deeper with me
Share them things and we'll go far indeed
We could slow down, holding under
Try everything that ever made you wonderHow to change, but be yourself now
Change, but be yourself now
Change, but be yourself now
Change, changeChange, but be yourself now
Change, but be yourself now, now, now, now, now
Change, but be yourself now
Change, but be yourself now, now, nowChange
Change
Change
ChangeChange
Change
Change
ChangeChange
Everybody say change
