Blue Days, Black Nights

Bob Luman

Blue days, black nights
Blue tears keep on fallin? for you dear, now you're gone
Blue days, black nights
My heart keeps on calling for you dear and you alone
Memories of you make me sorry
I gave you reason to doubt me
But now you're gone and I am left here all alone
With blue memories, I think of you

Blue days, black nights
I didn't realize I would miss you, the way I do
And now somehow I know I will pay
For the times I have made you blue
Memories of you make me sorry
I gave you reason to doubt me
But now you're gone and I am left here all alone
With blue memories, I think of you
