

Entering Bootytown

Haley Bennett

(laughs)
(laughs) You've tried every trick in the book
To get that boy to look
And still the road is dark and dim If love's just not on his map
It could be right in his lap
And still it won't get through to him Wise up, girl
Boy's only pay attention when they see the sign that says CHORUS:
Entering Bootytown
So shake that booty now
'Cause your booty is the way into his heart
Girl, don't you realise
One detour at your thighs
Is a right turn that can break his world apart You've been here with him before
But he just closes the door
And says, "We're better off as friends."
Tonight he'd better beware
There's somethin' hot in the air
Your wait is coming to an end No rules now
Gonna use every weapon till he knows he's crossed that line.
And he is Chorus... Enter, enter...
Enter, enter...
Enter, enter...
Entrez-vous (french accent) Enter, enter...
Ahh, ahh
Entrez vous No rules now
Gonna use every weapon till he knows he's crossed the line.
He is Chorus... 2x
