A Little Bit Of Love

TQ

YeahYou say you want to be the one I need
You say you want to be the one for me
You say you want to be the one I need
But then you go and act so crazyYou say you never want to let me go
You say you want to be the one I hold
You say you never want to let me go
But then you go and leave me lonelyIf you want to make things right
Love can make a way
If you want to take the time
Act like what you say, yeahA little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love goes a long, long way
A little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love is lovelyA little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love goes a long, long way
A little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love is lovelyYou want to be the one who makes me shy
The one who makes me laugh and makes me cry
You want to be the one to change my life
Then maybe you should treat me kindlyYou want to make believe you never left
You want to make believe I never wept
You said youd never ever leave again
Oh, baby, wont you quit pretendinIf you want to make things right
Love can make a way
And if you want to take the time
Act like what you say, yeahA little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love goes a long, long way
A little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love is lovelyA little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love goes a long, long way
A little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love is lovely, ohOh, if you want to make things right
Love can make a way
And if you want to take the time
Act like what you say, yeahA little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love goes a long, long way
A little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love is lovelyA little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love goes a long, long way
A little bit of love is all it takes

A little bit of love is lovelyA little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love is all it takes
A little bit of love is all it takes
