

Back to Life

New Kids On the Block

Another season come and pass
Yet another room not taking
Every dream I have unfulfilled
I wanna scream, but I lost the will! I take another step, somehow
The only thing that moves me is you right now
Gimmie the strength to get up again
My story's not over, this can't be the end! Then your love,
Your love
Makes me believe that I can make things right
I'm coming back, coming back, coming back
I'm coming back to life! How soon we all forget
Put it on the line
To live your life fearing death
I tell myself it's too late to change
This is insane, I can't stay the same!
Hey,
You lead me up in dark
You stop them bleeding of my heart!
Life doesn't make sense, but you understand
When I need you most you lend me your hand! And your love,
Your love
Makes me believe that I can make things right
I'm coming back, coming back, coming back
I'm coming back to life! I'm coming back to life! The weight of the world is lifting
I'm taking a deeper breath, I'm seeing things a little bit clearer
I turn it around,
When I finally found
The man in the mirror!
How soon we all forget? Then your love,
Your love
It makes me believe that I can make things right
I'm coming back, coming back, coming back
I'm coming back to life! Your love,
I believe in your love (I believe)
I'm coming back to life
