Blow Away

Staind

Live in my head for just one day
I see myself and look away
The road is showing now on my face
Soon I'll disappear with
I'll disappear without a fuckin' traceFaces that I've seen turn old and gray
I've lost too many friends along the way
Memories I never thought would fade
They fade and blow awayI wish that I could disappear
Unzip my skin and leave it here
So I could be no one again
And never let nobody
I'd let nobody, I'd let nobody inFaces that I've seen turn old and gray
I've lost too many friends along the way
Memories I never thought would fade
They fade and blow awaySo now the walls are closing in
Because in life you sink or swim
(Because in life you sink or swim)
Sometimes these shoes don't feel right in my head
Feel like a book that can't be
A book that can't be, a book that can't be readFaces that I've seen turn old and gray
I've lost too many friends along the way
Memories I never thought would fade
They fade and blow away
