Thank You

Marion Raven

You look beautiful tonight
As you turn down the light
You could be anywhere with anyone
But you're here with me tonightRed candle light is glowing in your eyes
The lust is burning too
As you hold me close to you
And you promise me tonightI'm gonna' spend my whole life trying
To keep love from dying on me
I'm gonna' spend my whole life faking
To keep us from breaking
I'll make you see, so take my hand
Thank you for loving meTake a look at myself, I'm not a baby anymore
You know I miss you when I'm gone
For your body I will long
Can't believe I'm finally homeI never wanna see you sad
I never wanna bring you down
I never wanna make you lieI'm gonna spend my whole life trying
To keep love from dying on me
I'm gonna spend my whole life faking
To keep us from breaking
I'll make you see, so take my hand
Thank you for loving meI'm gonna spend my whole life trying
To keep love from dying on me
I'm gonna spend my whole life faking
To keep us from breaking
I'll make you see, so take my hand
Thank you for loving me
