All I Want

Abra Moore

All I want is you
All I need is youLiar, liar in my bed
You're filling up my pretty, pretty head
You're telling me things that I want to hear
I'm enrapturedFire, fire in my heart
You're tearing me, you're tearing me, you're tearing me apart
Show me things that I want to feel
I'll be capturedThis road's got to end soon
See it's taking the better part of me, part of meFire, fire in my heart
It's tearing me, it's tearing me, it's tearing me apart
Telling me things that I want to hear
You've got me tellin' till my mind is set a reelin'I don't need some picture-framed photograph
To save me when it keeps coming back to thisAll I want is you
You know it, you know it
All I need is you
My heart's a reelin' and you don't know what I'm feelin'And I don't need some picture-framed photograph
To save me when it keeps coming back to thisAll I want is you
You know it, you know it
All I need is you
Won't you give itAll I want is you
(Won't you give it)
(Come on give it)
All I need is you
(Won't you give it to me)
(Come on give it)All I want is you
(Won't you give it)
(Won't you give it, come on)
All I need is you
(You got it, you got it, you got it, you got it)
(It's all I want)All I want is you
