

Dance, Chance, Romance

Junior Senior

Oh no, here comes the new girl in town
I told you all night how to get the girl

I told you how to make toes curl

For once I'm gonna try not to cramp my style

I know you're kind pretty but I like that smile
But you wanted to dance

So I might take a chance

Hoping for a little romance

Singing yeah yeah yeah x2

Hallelujah hallelujah
I wonder what you're doing tomorrow night

Wonder if we'll ever hold each other tight

Coming to the party standing by the gate

Did I get here early, or did I get here late?
But you wanted to dance

So I might take a chance

Hoping for a little romance

Singing yeah yeah yeah x2

Cause I just wanna be your boyfriend
Mirror mirror on the wall, tell me who's the cutest one of them all

Looking down, I'm looking up

Walking right past you, my heart begins to stop

But you wanted to dance

So I gave you that glance

And we ended up holding hands

Singin

Hallelujah hallelujah

Singing yeah yeah yeah x2

Oh hallelujah hallelujah
We had some good good times at the borderline

When you held my hand

We had some good good times with our new found love

Yeah, I think you understand

But then you let me go x7

(Let me go again) x5
