

Revenge Is Sweeter (Than You Ever Were)

The Veronicas

I saw it in the news
It told me they were wrong
And I stood up for you
'cause I believed you were the one

You had all the chances in the world
To let me know the truth
What the hell's wrong with you

Are you even listening when I talk to you
Do you even care what I'm going through
You stare and you're staring right through me
You're right there but its like you never knew me

Do you even know I'm up to head
Did you give up on me to be with her
Revenge is sweeter than you ever were

I'm so mad at you right now
And I can't even find the words
And you're on the way down
I can't wait to see you burn
You tried to make me hate that girl
When I should be hating you
What the hell's wrong with you

Are you even listening when I talk to you
Do you even care what I'm going through
You stare and you're staring right through me

You're right there but its like you never knew me

Do you even know I'm up to head
Did you give up on me to be with her
Revenge is sweeter than you ever were

Revenge is sweeter than you ever were

Nothing can save you now
That is over

I guess that you find out
That you're no one
Don't say you're sorry now
'cause I just don't care

Nothing can save you now
Nothing
Nothing can save you now
Nothing

Are you even listening when I talk to you
Do you even care what I'm going through
You stare and you're staring right through me
You're right there but its like you never knew me

Do you even know I'm up to head
Did you give up on me to be with her
Revenge is sweeter than you ever were

Revenge is sweeter than you ever were
