Same Old Highway

The Swon Brothers

Yeah, I'm gassed up and lead foot and rolling
I know these roads like the back of my hand
This not knowing where you're going
Has got me going just as fast as I canDown the same old highway
Same ditches, same exits, same lines
But if it's the same old highway
Oh, why can't I find you tonight?I'm tired of hitting these dead ends for nothing
I thought I had found you by now
And I'm guessing you're helping
On getting on out of this town
But the only way out isThis same old highway
Same ditches, same exits, same lines
But if it's the same old highway
Oh, why can't I find you tonight? (Come on)I wish the way that you loved me always stayed the same
I never would have changed like the lines in these lanesThe same old highway
Same ditches, same exits, same lines
But if it's the same old highway
Oh, why can't I find you tonight?Oh, why can't I find you tonight?
