Absolutely Perfect

Ryan Malcolm

Sometimes we don't, haven't a clue what we are doin'
We fumble around out in the wind like a piece of paperI had a picture of what this love was about, yeah
It's somehow different than what I'm looking atSometimes we want what we don't need
But here's the truth, I need you now
Not always right, not always roses, yeah
It's absolutely prefect, absolutely perfect, yeahOh, we make a turn, a stupid mistakes, that's just the beauty, yeah
'Cause nothing of worth comes when your life doesn't go through itI took a picture of what this love was about, yeah
It turned out different than what I'm looking atSometimes we want what we don't need
But here's the truth, I need you now
Not always right not always roses, yeah
It's absolutely prefect, absolutely perfectIt's absolutely perfect, it's absolutely perfect
It's absolutely perfect, absolutely perfect, yeah
Absolutely perfect, absolutely perfect, yeahSometimes we don't, haven't a clue what we are doin', yeah now
We fumble around out in the wind like a piece of paper, yeahI had a picture of what this love was about, yeah
It's somehow different than what I'm looking atSometimes we want what we don't need
But here's the truth, I need you now
Not always right, not always roses, yeah
It's absolutely prefectSometimes we want what we don't need
But here's the truth, I need you now
Not always right, not always roses, yeah
It's absolutely prefect, absolutely perfect, yeah
