

Fred Astaire (Joywave Remix)

San Cisco

Well of course I miss you, baby
I've been thinking lately
That you don't need me anymore
You'd be better with Fred Astaire
He could take you anywhere
If you ask him to And God knows
That its a common misconception
That I'm the only one for you
And I could take you out for breakfast
But he could take you 'round the world Fred Astaire's the man for you Well, he could buy you a diamond ring
Or he could get you anything
If you ask him to
He probably know how to dance
And he could fly you to France
And you could do it all night long
