This Is the Time (1990)

Savatage

Watching in silence I hesitate
It was not in the plans
All of our lives we could only wait
It was out of our handsAnd every war where we took the day
It was all in our heads
And though in the dark we dream at night
They were better unsaidBut this is the time
And this is the place
And these are the signs
That we must embraceThe moment is now
In all history
The time has arrived
And this is the one place to be, yeah, yeahWe placed our years in the hourglass
They were never unearned
And we seemed destined to watch them pass
It was never our turnBut this is the time
And this is the place
And these are the signs
That we must eraseThe moment is now
In all history
The time has arrived
And this is the one place to be, yeah, yeahThis is the time
And this is the place
And these are the signs
That we must eraseThe moment is now
In all history
The time has arrived
And this is the one place to be, yeah, yeah
