In Some Corner

Brandy Clark

In some corner in some bar
Somewhere not too far
He's drinking scotch on the rocks
Watchin' the sweat on the glass roll off
In some corner, in some bar, somewhereThere's a jukebox playin' Jones
Keepin' him company bein' alone
Right where the smoke meets the neon light
He's wrestling' with a memory tonight
In some corner, in some bar, somewhere[Chorus]
I'd love to say I'm strong enough enough
But if he put down that drink and called me up
I'd throw on my coat and be right there
In some corner, in some bar, somewhereIns one corner in the back of my heart
I know we're better bein' apart
So, I say a prayer tonight he'll move on
Then I pray even harder he'll pick up the phone
In some corner, in some bar, somewhere[Chorus]
I'd love to say I'm strong enough enough
But if he put down that drink and called me up
I'd throw on my coat and be right there
In some corner, in some bar, somewhereOh, everything I love is in the chair
In some corner, in some bar, somewhere
