

Comin' Up from Behind (Soundtrack Version)

Marcy Playground

Ah She's an eight ball
She's a'rollin faster than a white wall
She's got an avalanche packed into a snowball
She's a losin' all the links
She's like a stonewall
She's loaded upShe's the underdog
Gonna take a mighty swipe
At the high horse
While'a sippin' on her tricks
In a pitfall
Makin' eyes at the girls like bullfrogs
I'm telling you sirShe's comin' up from
Comin' up from comin' up
Comin' up from behindYeah She's comin' up from
Comin' up from comin' up
Comin' up from behindYou'd like her hanging
Like a sneaker on a live wire dangling
While your Wall Street pockets are jangling
With the hollow jackpot of your rich kid gamesIt's a long shot
She's got a troop and a tongue for a slingshot
But she's takin' steady aim
At the big shots
It's hard to miss the rolling-polies
On the blacktop
You better watch your turfShe's comin' up from
Comin' up from comin' up
Comin' up from behindYeah
She's comin' up from
Comin' up from comin' up
Comin' up from behindYou had her hanging
Like a sneaker on a live wire dangling
While your golden-lined pockets were jangling
With the hollow jackpot of your wretched gamesShe caught your sick lie
It's creepin' in the shadow of your white smile
Lurking underneath the cover of your bedroom eyes
Well you're greasin' up the lance for your small-fryYou wanna talk it up do you?
Well you're floatin like a royal balloon, oh
Your ego's swollen to the size of the moon well
I think you found somebody to cut you down to size

Well wellYeah
