

Crazy, Baby (feat. Clover the Girl)

Tren

Holdin'™ on to who you used to be (Yeah)
Back to when it was only you and me
Way before I made a fool of wii (we)
No games but the motion, then could move the sea
I know I™m holding on to a ghost,
Drift away like the bracelet we left on the coast
Look inside and see how empty I™ve become with you gone
They say the top can make you sore (soar)
Never know till you™ve flown, so
I™ll guess I™ll wing it like an old J
Get me actin up and tell™em that it™s okay
Hope you see me acting up and know it™s so fake
In the sky full of stars, that™s a cold play

So why would we look up to heaven when we just send hell through these messages text and then text again.
A novel with no words, cause we both
Just lie to see the other one hurt

[Chorus:]

Your walls; They build, they build, they™ll fall
Ya run it now, but I saw you crawl
Still you call me crazy, baby
Your walls; They build, they build, they™ll fall
Ya know I see right through it all
Still I love it, guess I™m crazy, baby

Yeah, she knows I love her, I just can™t keep Driving into the same wall hoping it™ll fall every time
When I know the truth, I™ll keep crashing and I™ll die
A little more, until we finally decide to open the fucking door
And jump out this death trap that we™ve built
Didn™t intend to leave but it™s that or be killed
Gripping tight, holding on to the wheel
But when I try to turn the tide I can™t budge it; no oxygen™s inside
I™m alive but I can™t breathe; you suffocate me, open eyes but I can™t see
Feel like a baby and maybe that™s where we lost
When all the choices were tossed, open up to the price
But couldn™t afford the cost, told you it™s not good-bye

But all of the lines were crossed,
So I tried to call back and the busy signal went off
Falling into darkness, heart lost in hardness
Tried to say I love you, instead just said whyâ€™d you start this

[Chorus:]

I stray from the fluff, I like it rough
Iâ€™ve got more than enough to dream about
Now I love someone, and the blood it runs
Let it flow, letâ€™em know that youâ€™d cross oceans just to showâ€™em
Youâ€™re not made of steel, you deserve to feelâ€™

[Chorus:]
