

Quotation for Listening

On Thorns I Lay

Help me. Will you?
Tell me. Will you?
This can be my last searching in the past. Put the blame on my obsessions.
I have tried so much tonight
the moment seemed so right Help me. Will you?
Be my lover.
I don't think you 're nice
'cause I have to pay the price. You are the only one I have got here.
My loneliness in your room.
My time is up so soon. I 'd charge you for an hour
I 'd charge you for a night
but this, beyond my power, is touching me inside.
Some words are there for talking some others cut like knife
Your presence everlasting could cost you all your life.
