Flying Solo

Naked Eyes

Flying low when a voice on the radio Says, "Do you know You were flying much to low" There's danger in the air but I don't care, oh noNo one there to hold your hand Nobody to change your plans Flying solo, your life is in your hands Flying soloAll alone, not a friend in sight up here I'm lost in a cloud, I am flying much too low I've got a head for heights but I fear Coming down slowNo one there to hold your hand Nobody to change your plans Flying solo, your life is in your hands Flying soloFlying solo, your life is in your hands Flying soloNo one there to hold your hand Nobody to change your plans Flying solo, your life is in your hands Flying soloFlying solo, your life is in your hands Flying solo Flying solo, your life is in your hands Flying solo
