

Monsters

Funeral For A Friend

Scattered seeds and breaking storms
Won't make a decent lie for you
Naked and with every breath you climb the stairs
Step by step and I don't need this And I don't need to be saved
Five steps away from this cliff top
And birds sing their praises
To this weary world that haunts my weary soul There are monsters here
And as you scream, it makes no sense
It makes no sense
It makes no sense at all There are monsters here
And as you scream, it makes no sense
It makes no sense
It makes no sense at all In every despair
I'll find you standing there
Waiting with the bitter taste
Of envy on your sleeve Because tonight is our night
And I don't want this
No, so won't you let me go There are monsters here
And as you scream, it makes no sense
It makes no sense
It makes no sense at all There are monsters here
And as you scream, it makes no sense
It makes no sense,
It makes no sense at all As every animal will find itself a home
As every man and woman, well, they'll just lose control
And we can make ourselves believe
That I don't want this, I don't need this
No, I have this to myself There are monsters here
And as you scream, it makes no sense
It makes no sense
It makes no sense at all In every despair
I'll find you standing there
It makes no sense
It makes no sense at all Sense at all
Sense at all
