Brother Bleed Brother

Finch

Hate sin not the sinner
A mold of ugliness thrown into the fire
Brother bleed brother
What have you done my son with your desire?
I?ll hold my breath until the end
A prayer for us to make it through
I?ll hold my breath
Miles of conviction to carry the weight
Of all your own mistakes
Open your eyes in the end of everything
Everything dies
And I die for you, and I die
And I die for you, and I die

Sifting seasons through the sand
(Time moves so slowly)
Spitting treason in your hand
(You won't hear me)
Sifting seasons through the sand
(Time moves so slowly)
Spitting treason in your hand
(You won't hear me)
I?ll hold my breath until the end
A prayer for us to make it through
I?ll hold my breath, I'll hold my breath
I?ll hold my breath
