Identity

Swans

Now I'm breathing the breath of god, And the cold wind cleans my Mind

And I'm standing in a ring of fire, and
My haert s made of light
And I fly across the red mountains.
And my hands contain the sky
And earth rolls away in Darkness, and I ride a piece of Lightning,

Killing time, killing timeNow they punish our imagination, and Corrupt our blood with fear,
And infinity's beneath the ocean, but Oblivion sits right beside

Me here

So we are blind and we're polluted, And each breath is drunk with Tears

We'll drift away across tomorrow,
And we'll ride the breath of
Nothing
Through the yers, killing time,
Killing time.
