

Nightmare

Eve 6

Blemishing mirror fright,
Gonna take a bit of a fall tonight
Dreamed that I was underneath a naked women
Saying something that I can't repeat
Awakened by the runway noise
Suck it up kid, assume battle poise
It's a lonely time for yours truly I know
I don't need to stay awake
In my nightmare I feel so alive
In my dream-scape escapades
I make the grade, I save the day
Pull here, push me there, a little lower
A little closer to the spot that's bare
That's the toy that fills my void
It's apparent I've inherited a demon joy
It's a lonely, the time for your truly I know
I don't need to stay awake
In my nightmare I feel so alive
In my dream-scape escapades
I make the grade, I save the day
Suck, suck, suck, go
In my nightmare I feel so alive
In my dream-scape escapades
I make the grade, I save the day
