Porchlight (feat. Anthony Hamilton)

Big K.R.I.T.

[Featuring: Anthony Hamilton][Intro]
Yeah
Baby leave the porchlight on
Baby leave the porchlight on
Baby leave the porchlight on
I can feel your pain through the phone
I promise not to stay too long
So leave the porchlight on[Verse 1: Big KRIT]
I gotta get it while the gettin' good, get outside the hood
Im tired of the landlord tripping on us
My partner said he gotta play, heard it worked the other day
Ive been home late because I'm bendin' corners
Dont worry, hit me via text, aint no need to stress
Gotta make some moves, I hate to leave you home lonely
I know just how it be when you in between the sheets
While Im in the streets thinking need to be at home
Doing those I got you on the grind nigga
When I'm on the shine ain't no telling when I'm coming home
Remember that you said that pussy mine
In that time youd meet at the door with no panties on
And dont be mad, playing hard to get
Cuz you could cum til your heart content
Yea, I can feel your pain through the phone
I promise not to stay too long so leave the porchlight on[Hook: Anthony Hamilton (Big KRIT)]
I'm coming home, baby it won't be long
I know you lookin fine, slide up behind ya
Say something good to you (something good to you)
It wont be long (baby leave the porchlight on)
I'm coming home, coming home nice and strong
I wanna see them eyes when I surprise ya
I promise I wont stay too long so leave the porchlight on[Verse 2: Big KRIT]
Back out on the road again
Different city, in the studio, working on the flow again
I really wanna talk on the phone
Shorty I gotta finish this song, it wont be long
Until we presidential suite, vaca'ing on the beach
Waikikiing for a week
Diamond in the back, leather on the seats
Louie on your frame, red bottoms on your feet

I mean the money cant change how you feel right now
Even harder cuz you bother once the sun goes down
Wonder where Im going after shows and such Dont be listening to your friends cuz they talk too much
Think I know just what we goin through, to make it right
I pray you understand this aint over night
Ill be on the next flight on my way back home
I promise I wont stay too long so leave the porchlight on[Hook][Interlude: Anthony Hamilton (Big KRIT)]
I wont take too long baby
Im on my way baby (baby leave the porchlight on)
Comin home
I wanna love you girl (baby leave the porchlight on)
You know Im on my way (baby leave the porchlight on)
I cant stay away too long[Hook][Outro]
I wont wait too long baby
Why dont you go on and flip that light on?
I wanna see me steppin up to the door when Im gettin closer, closer baby yea
