

The Right Time

Karnataka

The shadows fall
Another day of make-believe
Dreaming while your winter closes in
So all you do is wait and you think
Maybe you tried too hard
Or pushed too far
Or threw it all away So nothing's right or so it seems
If only you could take it back
Or take it all apart
You used to talk about it all the time
But now there's only silence
Where her laughter used to be So just take a look
It's all in you You let it go and walk away
Won't stay to hear the conversation turn inside your head
Well, if you win again, you spoil the game
But how much longer now will you refuse to take the blame Never saw something wrong
Everything rushing in
Lost in another world
But don't look back now
'Cause it's your time
And every day your life goes on
Don't try to take it all too fast
You can make this the right time
Just listen, listen to your heart
It's all in you An open sky, a brighter day
Time will tell
But this is how the changes must begin
So look what you've become
You're beautiful
I know you'll find the strength inside
I'll watch you smile again Never saw something wrong
Everything rushing in
Lost in another world
But don't look
Don't look back now
It's your time
Everyday your life goes on
Don't try to take it all too fast
You can make this the right time

Just listen, listen to your heart
