Survival

Hungry Ghosts

Take a breath relax distressed
Iâ€™m running from people
Racing through time

Opinions swarming round me
Shouting yelling screaming
Pushing shoving squeezing
Explode

Time will tick by
Nothing lonely surprise

We know ourselves
More than we want to
We know on our graves
No shame to our names

It slowly creeps up behind you
Stealing air from my lungs
In a loud noisy city
Central Lan Kwai Fong
I want hear not
I wish Iâ€™d led my life another way

Burning Drowning
Nothing Explode
Burning Drowning
Nothing Explode

We know ourselves
More than we want to
We know on our graves
No shame to our names

We Know ourselves
No shame our graves
We know ourselves
