

Halo

Lewis Watson

Maybe youâ€™re lost
Maybe youâ€™re scared
Maybe youâ€™re lonely
Or you havenâ€™t got there yet
Falling apart, come away at the seams
Even when youâ€™re wide awake, drowning in your dreams

Itâ€™s a wonder you donâ€™t know how wonderful you are
So maybe I should show you
That you have a halo
You have a halo
You have a halo
But maybe you donâ€™t know
You have a halo
You have a halo
You have a halo
But maybe you donâ€™t know

What is the use of just giving in
You know that if you keep this up youâ€™ll be more scars than skin
Maybe once in a while I could help you because they say a problem shared is a problem cut in two

Itâ€™s a wonder you donâ€™t know how wonderful you are
So maybe I should show you
That you have a halo
You have a halo
You have a halo
But maybe you donâ€™t know
You have a halo
You have a halo
You have a halo
But maybe you donâ€™t know
