

Shallow Graves

The 69 Eyes

hey mr. rabbit in an hurry and late don't you know waht it's gonna take go ask alice she will know what it's like to fall down in your holeall our lives we keep building shallow graves in greed till the death comes close we'll know what we're gonna miss the most you try to reach it but you're already there for a rat the race is never fair stop and look you will see the sand of the keeps on running freeall our lives we keep builing shallow graves in greed
we'll know what we're gonna miss the mostwrong notes in the symphony your dna memory and your blood carries a name that'll be written on your grave all your lives we keep
building shallow graves in greed
