Rain

Terence Trent D'Arby

Take off your topcoats

Put on your raincoats

And now give up your birthright

And don't you cry

'Cause in 23 verses now

A storm is a-comin'

And you'll be too surprised

To wonder why And it will

Rain rain

Go away, go away

Rain rain

Come back again another dayStep out your cool suit

Snap on you wet boots

And now eat all you mushrooms

Until you see

That in 22 verses now

A storm is a-brewin'

And you'll be too annoyed

For victory'Cause it will

Rain rain

Go away, go away

Rain rain

Come back again another dayChina glass &

A chocolate bar

I'm leaving behind

So my children's children

Children's children

Will see what's left of meCue up the James Brown

And jack up the funky sound now

Say it won't be the last time

You hear a scream

'Cause in 21 verses now

A storm is a-ragin'

And you will satisfy your destinyAnd it will

Rain rain

Go away, go away

Rain rain

Come back again another day
